FROM THE EAST

Brethren,

I hope this letter finds all who are reading it in good health both for themselves and family.

We have started the remedial process on the lodge. We have about 60% of the lodge room remediated. It's been a challenge as the roof is wide open and every time we get rain, we spend time removing the water. Because of this issue, I've worked with the engineer to redesign our roof system to accommodate installing the new roof while the old is in place. As of 6/28/2023, I'll be ordering all the materials to start replacing the roof. I've enclosed a few photos of the progress. Looking forward to having the Brethren assist in the near future with the remodeling process.

Warmest Regards Fraternally yours!!

WM Edward D. Ciofani

FROM THE WEST

Brethren All,

For this past meeting in June I had to miss the meeting as I was out sick...I feel so lost not having had that interaction with my fellow Brother Mason's, the ritual of the monthly meeting, the information pertaining to our lodge and the movement to re-build our physical Building, and the financial health of our Brotherhood of Masons.

I feel this missing one meeting...how do you feel not being a part of YOUR Lodge's Masonic Brotherhood for months if not years. Do you still feel like a Mason? Please do more than just pay your annual dues but interact with other members of Your Lodge who are attending meetings and who can give you prayer and relief if it is needed.

We need to hear from all of you, my Brothers...be a part of Noah #357.

If you need a ride, I'll happily enjoy your company both to and from the meeting(s).

Fraternally,
Gerard (Jerry) Krieger, Senior Warden

FROM THE SOUTH

Brethren All,

Keeping my message short so you can enjoy the photos of improvements at YOUR LODGE (below here). My Message: We miss you, Brother. Call if you need a ride!

Fraternally,
Dana P. McGrath, Junior Warden

239-995-5000 ANY TIME OF DAY OR NIGHT, Brother. Just dial it, I'll be glad you did.

FROM THE SECRETARY'S DESK

Brothers,

I would suggest that you join Amity which is an app that gives you an online dues card. At our next meeting we are voting on an Honorary Perpetual Membership for MW Glen B Bishop. His official visit to District 24 will be on August 12th at Tropical Lodge.

Fraternally,

RW Michael O. Gardner, Secretary

FROM THE TREASURE'S DESK

Brothers,

Last month I attended an Amateur Radio Convention near Dayton Ohio.

One of the forums that I attended was about scholarship for Amateur Radio Operators. I have passed this information onto a young man that is a Amateur Radio Operator in our local club.

This got me thinking, are there scholarships for the Masonic family. Yes there is, the Grand Lodge of Florida does offer scholarships. For more information please go to <https://www.grandlodgefl.com/citizenship/>

I was helped by a scholarship when I left high school and it meant alot to me.

Fraternally
Robert Pantazes, Treasurer
